The Missing Baltimore Dentist.

The Baltimore police are drawing the lines about Dr. Edward Brisbane Dawson, the fugitive dentist, who was indicted Monday for felonious assault upon four inmates of the Kelo House, in Forest Park. It is thought that the young man is in New York and every steamboat wharf and railroad depot has been watched since Monday noon. A letter was received in Baltimore Tuesday evening, which was mailed from New York late Monday night by Dawson. It was turned over to the police at headquarters yesterday, and, with this valuable clue, the detectives expect to draw the net closer about the young man. Dawson wrote the letter to his brother-in-law, Mr. Herbert Green, of Forest Park, but he did not direct the letter to that gentleman. Instead, he placed the epistle in an envelope, which addressed to a man who was once very friendly, with the request that it be delivered. The fugitive stated in the letter that he was innocent of the charges upon which he was indicted, and says that he remains away from the city because he feels keenly the shock of such charges, and that he was waiting for the feeling against him to tone down. He assured his brother-in-law and wife that everything would blow over within a couple of weeks and that he would return to his home.

Head-on Collision.

A head-on collision between two trains of the Danville and Western Division of the Southern Railway occurred yesterday morning two miles beyond Stokesland, and as a result O. G. Minter, of Stokesland, and Sam Staples, a colored brakeman, were killed and a number of other railway employees were injured and the engines of both trains were almost completely demolished. Both trains were running at full speed and neither engineer was expecting the other. The accident was probably caused by some misunderstanding of orders, as the crews on both trains claim to have been running on time. Staples, the colored brakeman on the extra freight, was instantly killed. He was caught between the boiler and the engine and met death by being crushed. Staples is from Stuart. Minter, a former member of the Danville Fire Department, who was firing on the freight, was seriously injured and died later at a hospital in Danville. Richard Hairton, the colored fireman on the passenger train, was crushed about his head, and his injuries may prove fatal. He is also bruised about the body. Charles Hundley, of Danville, a brakeman on the freight; J. L. Boyd, of Stuart, and the engineer on the passenger train and Conductor Ware received injuries from which they will recover.

Russian Socialistic Manifesto.

The French socialist leader, M. Jaures, yesterday made public the text of a manifesto of the revolutionary, socialist and other opposition parties in Russia, which he says, was issued simultaneously throughout Europe. The manifesto is signed by representatives of the various revolutionary and socialist parties of the empire, particularly in European Russia, Poland and Finland, who recently have been holding secret meetings. The manifesto leaves the individual parties free to pursue their own methods of opposition to the government, but pledges the union of all the elements of the opposition to secure "the abolition of autocracy and the substitution of a democratic system based upon universal suffrage, the revocation of the measure destructive of the constitution of Finland and the suppression of the violence of the central government against various sections of the empire." The manifesto closes as follows: "The parties represented here, with unite their efforts for the purpose of hastening the inevitable fall of absolutism." M. Jaures says that the uniting of the opposition parties is part of the movement for the adoption of a democratic institution in Russia, which, he declares will be the most important historical achievement since the French Revolution.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S.

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Goodness remedy. Respectfully yours,
E. A. LANGFELDT, M. A.,
Rector of St. Luke's Church.
To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "I was seized with a sudden rain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I am completely recovered. For liver, kidney, stomach and bowel trouble Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It is guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve," writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it as the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by all druggists.
